Maybe take the child on an outing at least once.

Be consistent with the library books

Invite parents for stay and play session once a month.

Extend the finish time to 12.00 o'clock so it would give the children more time to play.

No I am satisfied. Cannot think of anything better. You guys are doing a fabulous job. Thanks to every one of you.

I would suggest a designated snack time, where the children can sit down and eat fruit/milk. Watching the other children promotes better eating.
